

From Capacity to Success: HSIs, Title V, and Latino Students

What is the Title V: Developing HSIs* Program?

Title V is a federal competitive grant providing five years of funding to HSIs to expand capacity, quality, & the educational achievement of Latinos & other low-income students

HSIs & Title V Funding

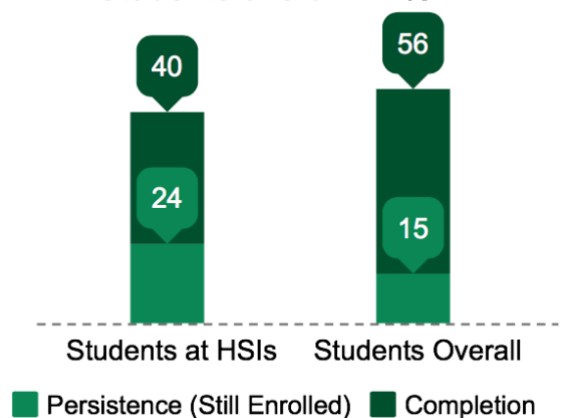

Growth: HSIs & Title V Recipients

The growth in HSIs has exceeded the numbers of HSIs receiving Title V grants

Persistence & Completion-2013

Combined rate:
Students at HSIs: 64%
Students overall: 71%

Latino Educational Attainment

Attainment of an associate degree or higher nearly doubled over the last 20 years

12%
(1995)

23%
(2014)

Title V & Latino Student Success

The majority of Title V recipients (70%) invested funding in activities related to Latino student success:

- 33% Faculty & curriculum development
- 26% Student support services
- 11% Fund & administrative management

