

HISPANIC-SERVING INSTITUTIONS 2016-2017

492

The number of HSIs currently in the United States and Puerto Rico, representing 15% of all institutions of higher education. This is an increase of 20 institutions from last year.

65%

The percent of all students enrolled at Hispanic-Serving Institutions identifying as Latino.

21

21 states and Puerto Rico have HSIs. While over 84% were located in 6 states and Puerto Rico, there were also HSIs in states less expected such as Connecticut, Oregon, Tennessee, and Washington.

333

The number of institutions classified as Emerging HSIs – having 15-24.9% undergraduate full-time equivalent Latino enrollment.

192

The number of HSIs offering graduate degrees. This accounts for 39% of all HSIs.

* HSIs are accredited and degree-granting, public or private not-for-profit institutions of higher education with 25% or more undergraduate Hispanic full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollment.

Source: Excelencia in Education analysis using U.S. Department of Education, NCES, IPEDS, 2016-17

Learn More at www.EdExcelencia.org